CINCINNATI, O., April 9—Miss Marian Anderson, great contralto, made her Cincinnati debut at the Netherland Plaza, under the auspices of the Matinee Musical club of Cincinnati. Miss Anderson’s program included spirituals, a Verdi Aria and several selections by the old masters.

Easter Sunday, March 28, marked the reopening of the Manse hotel under new management. The new set-up is said to be a veritable haven for good food and comfort. The credit goes to Rita Toliver, the new manager.

William McCaleb, Sr., 70, of 2827 Park avenue, Cincinnati, was retired from the Pullman service on March 31, after 44 years of good and faithful service. Mr. McCaleb, Sr., is one of the great pillars of Allen Temple AME church, and is also a very good bowler. During his 44 years on the road, Mr. McCaleb traveled most all of the runs covering the entire country. His service was of such merit that the Pullman company saw fit, to honor him by giving a Pullman car his name.

P. U. Jugler of 3059 Mentor street, Cincinnati, O., used to have quite a bit of spare time until he became interested in Boy Scout activities. This interest inspired him to take up special training in scout work. He is now a scoutmaster, and is organizing a great Boy Scout machine.

Allen Temple AME church announces its big rally, a four month drive to raise $3,000. The rally program was proposed by Jesse M. Chiles, a member of the Steward Board.

“Bold Front,” a musical comedy under the direction of Miss Bobbie Baker will be presented at the Central YWCA, May 8, at 8:15 o’clock.
