LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

THE DREYFUS CASE.

PARIS, Jan. 5.
I received yesterday the following dispatch by cable from Mr. Quenneville & Brun, who are in the Chancery of the Court of Cassation, that it had been announced that the Dreyfus case would be decided by the 7th of January. The Government, in its order of the 5th of December for the submission of the case to the Court of Cassation, had originally directed that the decision should be announced by the 15th of January, but it has been further announced that the case will be decided by the 7th of January. The decision is expected to be rendered in the present session, and it is to be decided by the 7th of January. The case will be decided by the 7th of January.

THE UNITED STATES AND AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

VIENNA, Jan. 5.
It is rumored that the President of the United States and the Imperial Government of Austria-Hungary have arrived at certain points of agreement, and that the decision will be announced in Vienna by the 7th of January.
