NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN, SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 26, 1918.

THE CALL OF DEMOCRACY.

In August the Democratic Party of the democratic state of Tennessee called for the offices to be filled at the November election. It should be the pleasure of every democratic voter to support all of these nominees loyally and vigorously.

The election of these nominees in the light of the party, and of every individual citizen that believes in democratic principles. If any of them are defeated, then the Democratic Party is defeated and the voting of that district must be changed by every democratic voter.
